BIOGRAPHY

Olivia M. Sanchez

Department of Public Works- Solid Waste Management Division

Olivia is a Recycling Specialist II with the County of San Bernardino. She has Bachelors of Science degree in Business Administration and a Masters in Business Administration, in addition to her Grant Development and Management Certification. She started with local government, specifically as an Environmental Specialist, in 1999 and worked in the areas of commercial and residential recycling, AB 939 compliance, household hazardous waste prevention and recycling, public/media outreach and education, and environmental program/grant administration.

Olivia started with the County of San Bernardino in 2006 as a Recycling Specialist I. Her current focus is on commercial recycling, business waste assessments, reuse programs, recycling awareness/public education, construction and demolition, extended producer responsibility and procurement. She is also the project manager for Zero Waste Communities of San Bernardino.

Her work on Extended Producer Responsibility includes presentations to jurisdictions and other associations on what EPR is and how to join CPSC. She is currently drafting policies and recommendations for adoption by the Board of Supervisors to ensure EPR is a part of operations, contracts and procurement.

She is a current member of the California Resource Recovery Association, the National Recycling Coalition and Board member of the California Product Stewardship Council.
